

TRUCKER ♦ HUSS

A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
ERISA AND EMPLOYEE BENEFITS ATTORNEYS

Practice Focus

Ms. Creed has more than 40 years of experience in employee benefits issues. She specializes in all aspects of employee benefits, focusing primarily on equity and executive compensation, qualified retirement plans, 401(k) plans, and IRS, DOL and PBGC plan audits. Her clients have included large publicly-held companies and complex multi-entity health care organizations. She has advised clients on employee benefits aspects of many mergers and acquisitions and corporate reorganizations.

Barbara is a trustee of the Church Pension Fund, the $8.5 billion fund providing pensions and other benefits to the clergy and lay employees of the Episcopal Church in the United States. Barbara is vice chair of the board of trustees and chairs the CEO Selection and Retirement Programs Committees. She has lectured frequently on employee benefits and executive compensation topics for many organizations, including ALI-ABA, PLI, Tax Executives Institute, and the Western Pension and Benefits Conference. Barbara is the author of ERISA Compliance: Reporting and Disclosure, published by the Practising Law Institute.

Barbara is a Charter Fellow of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, is listed in Best Lawyers in America, and has been named a Northern California "Super Lawyer" by Law & Politics magazine, 2004 through 2010.
