Nancy is responsible for directing and managing all financial, accounting, billing, payroll, treasury and tax functions for the firm.

She joined Trucker Huss in 2011 after she served for more than 20 years as the Director of Finance/Administration for the real estate law firm Ellman Burke Hoffman & Johnson, APC where she directed all financial, tax and administrative functions, including the administration of all employee retirement and benefit programs. When the firm closed after more than 33 years in business and most of the lawyers and staff were hired by the Los Angeles based law firm Buchalter Nemer, APC, Nancy was hired to assist with the transition of the two firms. Prior to Ellman Burke, Nancy was a CPA and Senior Tax Specialist for the international accounting firm KPMG. She received her CPA Certificate from the Arizona State Board of Accountancy which she has continuously maintained since 1988.

Nancy is an active member, participant and frequent contributor to legal and professional industry organizations. For the Association of Legal Administrators, Nancy served as a member of the Annual Conference Planning Committee (2013-2015); a member and speaker for the Financial Management Conference Planning Committee (2004-2006); a speaker for the Region 1 Conference (2008); Past President, Golden Gate Chapter (2000-2001) and a member of the Executive Board Golden Gate Chapter (1994-2002). Nancy also served as a member of the Bar Association of San Francisco Law Practice Management Section Executive Committee (2001-2002).
