Katuri focuses her practice primarily on qualified retirement plans, including defined benefit and defined contribution plans, and plans of tax exempt entities and public schools and universities, including 403(b) and 457 plans.

Katuri counsels clients on the design and tax-qualification of retirement plans and the taxation of employee benefits. In addition, Katuri assists clients with drafting plan documents, SPDs and plan amendments; analyzing plan administrative issues; service provider and investment management agreement reviews; reviewing and drafting QDROs; preparing IRS and DOL submissions; and resolving questions regarding compliance with ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code.

Katuri is admitted in California, New York and Virginia, and currently practices in both Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Katuri was named by Los Angeles Business Journal as their 2020 Attorney of the Year in Labor and Employment for its "Leaders in the Law Award." Additionally, Katuri was recognized as a 2020 "Rising Star" by Southern California Super Lawyers. Katuri was also named to Los Angeles Business Journal's "2019 Most Influential Women Lawyers" list. In addition, she was listed on the "Lawyers of Color 2013 Inaugural Hot 100" and the National Bar Association's "2012 Top 40 Advocates Under 40 Award".
